

I am in shock that any broadcasting company would make such a political move. It's a shame to share with you that I will not watch these broadcasting stations ever again if you air this anti-Kerry documentary.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard.

This is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation. Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. But when large companies control the airwaves, we get more of what's good for the bottom line and less of what we need for our democracy.

Thank you.
